
Friends of Civil War Alcatraz
53 Woodland Ave., #7, San Anselmo, CA 94960

Friends of Civil War Alcatraz provides speakers on Civil War Alcatraz, Engineers at Alcatraz, Defense of the Bay, California in the Civil War, San Francisco in the Civil War, Election of 1860 in California and other Civil War related subjects.

Speakers are members of the Friends of Civil War Alcatraz (FOCWA) and most of them are docents at Alcatraz Island, San Francisco, California.

We have a school program about California in the Civil War.
Contact Steve Johnson at sfwalkingtours@gmail.com

We have listed some of the speakers, their subjects and the length of the presentations and equipment that may be needed.

FOCWA Secretary Constance E. Smith will direct your request to an appropriate speaker. You need to forward your name, phone number and email address, and the name of your organization.

Constance E. Smith
DixieDr2@aol.com

Speakers

- Steve Johnson gives talks on: California & the Civil War; Civil War Forts of the Bay Area; How the Gold Rush Led to the Civil War; The History of Fort Alcatraz
- Constance Smith gives talks on: A Woman's Life in 1860; Women in the Civil War; Pauline Cushman, Union Spy
- Gary Hormel gives talks on California and the Civil War; The History of Fort Alcatraz
- Frank Avila gives talks on: medicines and medical care in the 1860s